5. Event Overview

Suits meets Shark Tank. The ultimate pitch and negotiation showdown.

Bluff and Bargain, 2nd Edition is a high pressure business simulation combining pitching, negotiation, strategy, information management, decision making, and deal making. Inspired by Suits and Shark Tank, participants will step into the role of business representatives and dealmakers.

The competition consists of two rounds, with each round testing a different aspect of entrepreneurial thinking.

- Round 1, the Shark Round. Teams receive a confidential company brief and pitch their assigned company, while strategically deciding what to reveal, highlight, or hold back.
- Round 2, the Suits Round. The 6 finalists enter the Boardroom and analyse the same Partnership Contract. Representing the Client Company, teams must spot flaws, assess their impact, and suggest practical solutions. All teams participate simultaneously, testing their observation, business understanding, and problem solving skills.

OVERALL FLOW

30 teams. 6 business domains. Round 1. 6 finalists. Round 2. Winner and runner up.

6. Round 1: The Shark Round

PITCH. BLUFF. DEFEND.

The 30 teams will be divided into 6 business domains, with 5 teams assigned to each domain. Each team will receive a confidential company brief at least 24 hours before the event.

6.1. Round Structure

1. Preparation. Teams study their confidential company brief and prepare their pitch.
2. Company pitch, 5 minutes. Teams present their assigned company, highlighting its strengths, opportunities, business proposition, and strategic position.
3. Bluff factor. Teams can bluff and strategically present information from their confidential brief. They may highlight strengths, hide weaknesses, or frame information in a way that makes their company more appealing, while being prepared to defend their claims during the Q and A.
4. Judge's Q and A, 2 minutes. Judges may question, challenge, or probe the team's claims. Teams must defend their pitch and respond strategically without unnecessarily revealing confidential information.
5. Evaluation and selection. Teams will be evaluated on their pitch quality, strategic use of information, ability to defend their position, and handling of the Q and A.

ROUND 1 FLOW

30 teams. 6 business domains. 5 teams per domain. Pitch and bluff. Judge's Q and A. 6 finalists.

7. Round 2: The Suits Round

The 6 finalist teams will participate together in a live contract analysis challenge in the Boardroom, in front of the judge.

All teams will receive the same Partnership Contract between two companies. Each team will represent the same Client Company and analyse the contract from the client's perspective.

Teams must:

- Carefully analyse the contract.
- Identify clauses or terms that could negatively affect the Client Company's reputation, market position, or business interests.
- Explain the impact of the issues identified.
- Propose a practical and favourable solution for each issue.

All 6 teams will participate simultaneously, with the judge giving teams opportunities to identify and respond to issues from the contract. The final decision will primarily be based on the number of relevant flaws identified and how effectively the team explains their impact and proposes suitable solutions.

7.1. Evaluation Criteria

Outcome	Points
Flaw identified and a practical solution provided	2 points
Flaw identified, but no practical solution provided	1 point

WINNING CONDITION
